

SPiN New York

SPiN New York is a 13,000 square foot table tennis social club on Park Avenue in Manhattan's Flatiron District. The club offers unparalleled table tennis courts with Olympic quality cushioned flooring and 17 individual tables, including a stadium-like center court. In addition, SPiN New York houses a pro shop, lounge, bar, private room sponsored by Fred Perry and over a dozen internationally known professional coaches and players who are available for private and group instruction.

A strikingly original artistic, athletic and social movement has begun in the heart of Manhattan. SPiN Members are people who like table tennis, or merely enjoy watching, drinking, eating, talking, smiling, flirting, playing backgammon, reading the newspaper, doing head stands etc.

Despite our Park Avenue address, our state-of-the-art world class table tennis facilities, and our breathtaking interior design, as a SPiN Founding Member you will enjoy table tennis prices 50% off standard table rental rates.

Table Tennis can be played in any combination of attire, so a locker room, with a shower and an over night valet Paddle Storage service is our solution to the variety of circumstances you might have. Members can safely store their paddle in our specially designed paddle vault.

SPiN doors will be closed to the general public several nights each week to host members only tournaments, professional player exhibitions, parties and events. As a member of SPiN you will have exclusive access to these events with as many as 3 guests.
